TABLE XXX.

THE NUMBER OF PERSONS IN EACH STATE AND TERRITORY

ENGAGED IN EACH SELECTED OCCUPATION

AND

CLASS OF OCCUPATIONS,

WITH

DISTINCTIONS OF AGE AND SEX AND OF NATIVITY.

NOTE.—For the purposes of Tables XXX and XXXII following, certain specific occupations, seventy-four in number, have been selected, consideration being had, at once, of the importance of each individual occupation arising from the number of persons engaged therein, as in the case of blacksmiths, domestic servants, carpenters, cotton-mill operatives, and agricultural laborers, and of the claim of the occupation to attention, arising from the character of the duties belonging thereto, as in the case of clergymen, lawyers, physicians, &c. The smaller and less important of the specific occupations have, for the sake of brevity, been omitted from these tables. The lines for "Agriculture," for "Professional and Personal Services," for "Trade and Transportation," and for "Manufactures and Mining," are, however, complete, including all the occupations of their respective classes, whether here enumerated or not. The line for "All Occupations" gives the sum of these four classes. It follows that the occupations specified under each class do not make up the total of the class, nor do all the occupations specified make up the total of "All Occupations."

In the same way, as certain nationalities only are reported in this table, the sum of the numbers given under all the heads of nationality specified is not to be expected to agree with the total number of persons reported as engaged in each occupation, or in all occupations.
