No. 321.—CIVIL SERVICE: Number of Positions, by Status, on July 1, 1909, Additions by Appointments, etc., and Subtractions by Separations during the Fiscal Year, and Number of Positions on June 30, 1910.

[Prepared in the office of the Civil Service Commission.]

[This table is based upon the number of positions shown in the Official Register of 1903, and changes in the service since reported by the departments and offices. Some of the reports were not made in such manner as to permit of a definite distinction as to employment in Washington and elsewhere. The figures are therefore to be regarded as approximate only. Omissions to report certain changes, as explained in the detailed tables, and neglect of details necessary only for statistical purposes also contribute to making the figures approximate only.]

[1] By the revision of the rules of May 6, 1896, the Indian Service was made a part of the Departmental Service, but for the purpose of comparison with previous years the Commission has, in its annual reports, kept separate statistics for this service. Only about one-half of the appointments in the Indian Service since July 1, 1900, have been made from examinations for positions belonging exclusively to the Indian Service, the remainder being made from examinations for positions in the Departmental Service generally. Percentages relating exclusively to the Indian Service can not, therefore, be given.

[2] On account of abundance of eligibles few examinations were held; percentage upon the basis of these figures would therefore be deceptive.
