[1] The production statistics relate, when possible, to the year of growth, but when figures for the growth year are wanting, a commercial crop which represents the trade movement is taken. The statistics of production have been compiled from publications of the United States Department of Agriculture for 1860 to 1898. Census figures have, however, been used when available, including those for 1899 to date.

[2] The value of lint per pound shown since 1902 relates to the average grade of upland cotton marketed prior to Apr. 1 of the following year; from 1890 to 1901, the average price of middling cotton on the New Orleans Cotton Exchange; and from 1860 to 1889, as published in reports of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[3] Compiled from publications of the United States Department of Agriculture for 1860 to 1894; from the reports of Latham, Alexander & Co., for 1895 to 1903. Census figures have been taken when available. Discrepancies in the figures for census years as compared with those of the table entitled "Statistical Record of the Progress of the United States" are caused mainly by difference of method in the making up of the respective tables.

[4] Compiled from "Commerce and Navigation of the United States," 1860 to date. The export year begins July 1 of the year specified from 1860 to 1866, and Sept. 1 for 1867 to date. The period for consumption, exports, and imports is designated by the year in which the record begins rather than that in which it ends.

[5] Excess of foreign exports over total imports.

[6] Equivalent bales of 400 pounds.

[1] The periods relate to years ended June 30.
[2] After 1900 includes imports into continental United States and shipments thereto from noncontiguous customs districts.
[3] After 1900 includes exports, domestic and foreign, from continental United States and shipments therefrom to noncontiguous customs districts.
[4] Average for the period.
[5] Import prices for 1891 and 1892 were overvalued by reason of depreciation of Brazilian paper milreis.
[6] Information for 1901 and 1902 relative to noncontiguous customs districts is somewhat fragmentary.

No. 309.—DISTILLED SPIRITS, WINES, AND MALT LIQUORS: QUANTITIES CONSUMED AND AVERAGE ANNUAL CONSUMPTION PER CAPITA IN THE UNITED STATES, 1850 TO 1912.[1]

[Sources: The production of domestic wines has been estimated by the Department of Agriculture, by Mr. Charles McK. Leoser, president of the Wine & Spirit Traders' Society of New York, and other well-informed persons. The production of domestic spirituous and malt liquors has been derived from reports of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The table does not include for any year withdrawals of distilled spirits for scientific purposes and for use of the United States, or since 1906 withdrawals for denaturation, free of tax. For 1912 these amounts were 2,488,675 and 13,955,904 tax gallons, respectively.]
