TABLE 2.—CROSS-LINE ACREAGE—FARMS REPORTING AND ACREAGE BY PLACE OF ENUMERATION AND BY LOCATION OF ACREAGE, WITH RELATIONSHIP TO ALL FARMS, BY GEOGRAPHIC DIVISIONS AND STATES: 1940 AND 1935

(Farms with land in two or more minor civil divisions (M.C.D.'s), counties, or States were enumerated where the farmsteads were located. That portion which was located in other M.C.D.'s, counties, or States is referred to as cross-line acreage. For definition and discussion of M.C.D.'s, see text)

[1] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 2,536 such farms with 6,281,759 total acres, 12 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, in other counties within the State, and in other States. In 1935 there were 3,422 such farms.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent.

[3] Totals do not equal the sum of individual States because of 13 farms with 126,437 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other States.

[1] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 8 such farms with 31,404 total acres and in 1935 there were 10 such farms. [2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [3] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 979 acres. [4] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 6 farms with 5,790 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [9] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 15 such farms with 21,267 total acres and in 1935 there were 28 such farms. [10] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 3,613 acres. [11] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 10 farms with 11,552 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 1 farm with 15,000 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [12] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State, and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 29 such farms with 169,072 total acres, 1 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, in other counties of the State, and in other States. In 1935 there were 52 such farms. [13] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 307,943 acres. [14] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 41 farms with 373,976 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 4 farms with 131,628 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties. [15] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 2 farms with 23,987 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 counties of this State and 1 farm with 3,411 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 counties of this State.

[16] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 23 such farms with 108,160 total acres, 1 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, in other counties of the State, and in other States. In 1935 there were 51 such farms. [17] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 57,626 acres. [18] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 24 farms with 188,523 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 2 farms with 87,324 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties. [19] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 3 farms with 6,839 total acres reporting 2,319 cross-line acres located in State, but county was not specified.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [24] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 8 such farms with 33,605 total acres, 1 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, in other counties of the State, and in other States. In 1935 there were 3 such farms. [25] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 3,817 acres. [26] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 5 farms with 639,341 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [27] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 1 of the minor civil divisions in the State lies in 2 counties. [28] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 11 such farms with 13,449 total acres and in 1935 there were 13 such farms. [29] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 2,562 acres. [30] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 8 farms with 4,791 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[32] Includes 37,120 acres in Yellowstone National Park (part) not shown in detail. [33] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 11 such farms with 41,303 total acres and in 1935 there were 18 such farms. [34] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 3,342 acres. [35] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 6 farms with 14,991 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties. [36] Totals do not equal sum of individual counties because of 1 farm with 2,440 total acres reporting 40 cross-line acres located in State, but county was not specified and 3 farms with 2,080 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 counties of this State.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [37] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 125 such farms with 58,157 total acres and in 1935 there were 213 such farms. [38] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 1,225 acres. [39] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 43 farms with 21,959 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties. [40] Totals do not equal sum of individual counties because of 1 farm with 81 total acres reporting 40 cross-line acres located in State, but county was not specified.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [49] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 477 such farms with 887,050 total acres, 3 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, in other counties of the State, and in other States and in 1935 there were 448 such farms. [50] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 10,355 acres. [51] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 140 farms with 267,287 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 11 farms with 61,649 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties. [52] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 6 farms with 12,566 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 counties of this State.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [53] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 8 such farms with 3,667 total acres and in 1935 there were 12 such farms. [54] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 504 acres. [55] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 15 farms with 23,729 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [56] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the parish, in other parishes within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of parish or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 4 such farms with 2,676 total acres and in 1935 there were 3 such farms. [57] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 1,328 acres. [58] Totals do not equal the sum of individual parishes because of 1 farm with 362 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other parishes, 1 farm with 9,826 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other parishes.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [65] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 63 such farms with 19,255 total acres and in 1935 there were 78 such farms. [66] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 17 farms with 6,503 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 3 farms with 2,045 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [67] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 10 of the minor civil divisions in the States lie in 2 counties and 1 in 3 counties. [68] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 101 such farms with 57,628 total acres and in 1935 there were 130 such farms. [69] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 21 farms with 7,433 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 3 farms with 1,915 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [70] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 6 such farms with 6,979 total acres and in 1935 there were 2 such farms. [71] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 6 farms with 1,551 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.
