[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [21] The apparent excess of land reported as located in the county (line 9 plus line 64) over the land area of the county (line 11) is probably due to incomplete reports of cross-line acreage. See text. [61] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 1 of the minor civil divisions is probably due to incomplete reports of cross-line acreage. See text. [62] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in in the State lies in 2 counties. [63] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 269 such farms with 1,253,268 total acres, 3 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, in other counties of the State, and in other States. In 1935 there were 232 such farms. [63] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 65,720 acres. [64] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 71 farms with 400,272 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties, 1 farm with 942 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties, and 1 farm with 206,400 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 4 other counties. [65] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 1 farm with 1,280 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 counties of this State.

[86] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 5 such farms with 66,019 total acres and in 1935 there were 17 such farms. [87] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 3,197 acres. [88] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 6 farms with 822,500 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 1 farm with 6,120 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [95] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 2 of the minor civil divisions in the States lie in 3 counties and 1 lies in 5 counties. [96] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 25 such farms with 10,881 total acres and in 1935 there were 22 such farms. [97] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 7 farms with 1,144 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

(2) Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [98] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 17 such farms with 8,041 total acres and in 1935 there were 30 such farms. [99] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 4 farms with 1,125 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. 100 Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 4 of the minor civil divisions in the States lie in 2 counties and 1 lies in 5 counties. 101 Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 251 such farms with 352,176 total acres and in 1935 there were 215 such farms. 102 Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 14,841 acres. 103 Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 26 farms with 56,887 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 1 farm with 2,720 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 4 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [104] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 2 of the minor civil divisions in the State lie in 2 counties. [105] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 68 such farms with 22,324 total acres and in 1935 there were 163 such farms. [106] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 4,908 acres. [107] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 37 farms with 11,087 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 2 farms with 947 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [108] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 7 of the minor civil divisions in the State lie in 2 counties. [109] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 164 such farms with 314,356 total acres, 2 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, in other counties of the State, and in other States. In 1935 there were 117 such farms. [110] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 72,992 acres. [111] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 41 farms with 115,661 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 2 farms with 29,550 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties. [112] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 1 farm with 420 total acres reporting 420 cross-line acres located in State, but county was not specified and 3 farms with 4,521 total acres reporting [illegible] in 2 [illegible] of this State.

(2) Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [113] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 12 such farms with 109,136 total acres and in 1935 there were 32 such farms. [114] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 44,249 acres. [115] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 17 farms with 328,103 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties and 1 farm with 6,200 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 3 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [116] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 7 of the minor civil divisions in the State lie in 2 counties. [117] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 18 such farms with 14,642 total acres and in 1935 there were 13 such farms. [118] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 7,514 acres. [119] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 5 farms with 10,333 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [121] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 5 such farms with 3,186 total acres and in 1935 there were 11 such farms. [122] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 57 acres. [123] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 1 farm with 10,000 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [124] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 3 of the minor civil divisions in the State lie in 2 counties and 1 lies in 3 counties. [125] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 174 such farms with 407,738 total acres 1 of which farms reported cross-line acreage in other minor civil divisions of the county, and other counties of the State, and in other States. In 1935, there were 199 such farms. [126] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 127,880 acres. [127] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 27 farms with 129,556 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties. [128] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 3 farms with 23,009 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 counties of this State.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [129] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940 there were 6 such farms with 9,616 total acres and in 1935 there were 16 such farms. [130] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 701 acres. [131] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 4 farms with 1,072 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties. [132] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 1 farm with 85 total acres reporting 10 cross-line acres located in State, but county was not specified.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [149] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940 there were 8 such farms with 12,837 total acres and in 1935 there were 10 such farms. [150] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 151 acres. [151] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 9 farms with 8,840 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.

[2] Less than one-tenth of 1 percent. [152] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because 15 of the minor civil divisions in the State lie in 2 counties. [153] Totals do not equal the sum for farms reporting cross-line acreage within the county, in other counties within the same State and in other States or with location not specified because of farms with cross-line acreage in and out of county or in and out of State. In 1940, there were 104 such farms with 30,931 total acres and in 1935 there were 222 such farms. [154] Exclusive of cross-line acreage in farms indicating but not reporting the extent of the cross-line acreage. All land in such farms amounted to 1,209 acres. [155] Totals do not equal the sum of individual counties because of 26 farms with 8,420 total acres reporting cross-line acreage in 2 other counties.
