Census
SC.
HA
205
.G7x
1947
c.2

U. S. BUREAU OF THE CENSUS.

Census tract manual. Third edition, revised and enlarged.

1947

Census
A 815037
UN3
1947
c.2

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
Bureau of the Census
Washington 25

U.S. Bureau of the Census

CENSUS TRACT MANUAL

Third Edition, revised and enlarged

A large part of the new material in this Manual was prepared by Howard Whipple Green, with the assistance of Esther M. Wright

CONTENTS

	Page
Nature and general use of census tracts	1
Other small-area data for cities	1
Enumeration districts	1
Blocks	1
Origin and history of census tracts: 1910 to 1940	1
Census data available by census tracts	2
Published data	2
Unpublished data	3
Administrative arrangements and materials	3
Committee on census enumeration areas	3
Central library	3
Local census tract committee and key person	3
Census tract maps	4
Census tract street index	4
Allocating records to census tracts	5
Specific uses of census tract data	5
Important users	5
Tax-supported agencies	5
Semipublic agencies	6
Business interests	6
Items allocated by tracts	6
City planning	6
Transportation	6
Housing	6
Health	7
Recreation	7
Education	7
Fire and police	7
Libraries	7
Churches	7
Business uses	7
Graphic presentation of census tract data	8
New census tract areas	9
Local planning committee	9
Laying out census tracts	10
Numbering census tracts	11
Appendix A.—Status of census tract cities: 1940	12
Appendix B.—List of census tract key persons (Jan. 1, 1947)	13
Appendix C.—Map, Census tracts in Cleveland and a part of its suburban area	15
Appendix D.—Map, Distribution of population in Cleveland: 1940	16

January, 1947

42832