GENERAL

This report presents detailed statistics for the United States on the demographic, social, and economic characteristics of the civilian male veteran population 16 years old and over. In addition, some characteristics of housing units occupied by veterans are included. The statistics are based on the 1970 Census of Population. Legal provision for this census, which was conducted as of April 1, 1970, was made in the Act of Congress of August 31, 1954 (amended August 1957), which codified Title 13, United States Code.

A major portion of the information compiled from the 1970 Census of Population appears in Volume I, Characteristics of the Population, which focuses on the presentation of data for States, counties, places, and other areas of the United States. The present report is part of Volume II, Subject Reports, wherein most reports concentrate on the presentation of national and regional data for a particular subject. A list of Volume II subject reports from the 1970 census is presented on page II. For a description of Volumes I and II, as well as other elements of the data dissemination program of the 1970 Population and Housing Census, see Appendix E, "Publication and Computer Summary Tape Program."

The content and procedures of the 1970 census were determined after evaluation of the results of the 1960 census, consultation with a wide variety of users of census data, and extensive field pretesting. A number of changes were introduced in 1970 to improve the usefulness of the census results. For the characteristics shown in this report, the changes do not, however, affect to any appreciable extent the comparability of the 1970 data with those for 1960.

More detailed information on the technical and procedural matters covered in the text of this report can be obtained by writing to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. Such information will also appear in later reports of the 1970 census.

Organization of the text.—The text consists of this introduction and Appendixes A through E, which appear after the tables. The introduction contains information relating specifically to the principal subject of this report, such as definitions of terms and editing procedures. Appendix A provides general information concerning the presentation of data in this series of reports and the collection and processing procedures of the 1970 census. Appendix B describes the various area classifications (e.g., urban and rural residence, urbanized areas, etc.) and also explains the residence rules used in counting the population. Appendix C provides brief definitions and explanations of subjects covered in cross-classifications in this report and other reports in this series. Appendix D presents information on sources of error in the data, sampling variability, ratio estimation, and editing procedures. Appendix E summarizes the data dissemination program.

Content of the tables.—Table 1 presents data on civilian male veterans by single years of age by period of service. Tables 5, 10, 13, 15, 20, and 22 also present data by period of service cross-classified by pertinent social or economic characteristics. Tables 2 through 7 emphasize various characteristics of veterans such as marital status, living arrangements, number and age of own children, years of school completed, labor force status, employment status, and weeks worked in 1969. Tables 8 through 16 are concerned with data on earnings in 1969, personal income of veterans, and income of families headed by veterans, cross-classified by a variety of characteristics. Tables 18 through 22 present data on veterans in institutions by type, mobility status of veterans, and the activity of veterans in 1965. Tables 17 and 23 through 25 are concerned with the housing of veterans: whether veterans are owners or renters, the value of their owner-occupied units, and selected characteristics of their housing units. Generally, separate statistics are presented for all veterans, white veterans, Negro veterans, and veterans of Spanish language. Although most of the data relate to the United States as a whole, some information is provided by urban-rural residence.

Sample size.—The statistics in this report are based on the 15-percent sample adjusted to represent the total population (see "Data Collection Procedures" in Appendix A). An explanation of the ratio estimation procedure and information on the sampling variability associated with the data are contained in Appendix D.

RELATED MATERIALS

1970 census reports.—Statistics based on a 15-percent sample showing the number of civilian male veterans 16 years old and over by period of service are presented for the United States, States, standard metropolitan statistical areas, urbanized areas, places of 10,000 or more, and counties in chapter C of the 1970 Census of Population, Volume I, Characteristics of the Population. Data in chapter D of Volume I, which are shown for the United States, regions, divisions, and States, include veterans by age cross-classified by period of service, race, and several other social and economic characteristics. Chapters C and D were originally published as paperbound Series PC(1)-C reports, General Social and Economic Characteristics, and Series PC(1)-D reports, Detailed Characteristics, respectively.

Other Volume II reports containing data on veterans are PC(2)-2B, Mobility for States and the Nation; PC(2)-4E, Persons in Institutions and Other Group Quarters; and PC(2)-9A, Low-Income Population. In addition, data on the financing of veterans' housing units are included in 1970 Census of Housing, Volume V, Residential Finance.

Reports from earlier censuses.—In the 1960 census reports, data on veterans 14 years old and over from a 5-percent sample, cross-classified by most of the same characteristics shown in this report, were published in 1960 Census of Population, Volume II, PC(2)-8C, Veterans. Other subject reports from the 1960 population census in which information on veterans is included are PC(2)-2B, Mobility for States and State Economic Areas, and PC(2)-8A, Inmates of Institutions. Data on veterans are also shown in 1960 Census of Housing, Volume V, Residential Finance.

Data on veterans, based on a 25-percent sample, were published for the United States, States, standard metropolitan statistical areas, urbanized areas, places of 10,000 or more, and counties in chapter C of the 1960 Census of Population, Volume I, Characteristics of the Population. More detailed data on the social and economic charactersitics of veterans for the United States, regions, divisions, and States were published in chapter D of the 1960 Census of Population, Volume I, Characteristics of the Population.

Although data on veteran status were collected in the 1950 and 1940 censuses, none of the data have been published in census reports.

Current Population Survey.—Data on veteran status for the United States are collected regularly by the Bureau of the Census through its Current Population Survey (CPS). The CPS is a nationwide survey, covering a sample of about 50,000 households. Selected statistics on the income of World War II veterans 25 to 44 years old were published in the annual surveys of income covering the years 1947 through 1961 in Series P-60, Current Population Reports. Similarly, data on the employment status of veterans of World War II were published periodically in Employment and Earnings by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor. Publication of these data was discontinued with the April 1963 issue. However, similar data for veterans of the Vietnam conflict were published in the same publication beginning in 1971. Beginning in 1964, the Veterans' Administration has been periodically publishing selected statistics from the CPS on personal and family income, work experience, employment status, and educational attainment of veterans.

Unpublished data.—For most of the Volume II reports, statistics in addition to those published in the report are available on a reimbursable basis from computer tape files. Data shown for the United States as a whole are available for regions, divisions, and States, and, in a number of instances, the data for some characteristics were tabulated in greater detail than shown in the reports. Requests for unpublished data, giving a specific description of the figures desired, should be made in writing to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. Inquiries concerning unpublished data should be transmitted to the Bureau as soon as possible since tape files are not maintained indefinitely.

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS OF PRINCIPAL SUBJECTS

The definitions and explanations below relate only to the principal subjects of this report. Brief definitions of other items that appear in cross-classifications in the tables of this report are presented in Appendix C.

Veteran status.—The data on veteran status were derived from answers to question 26 (see facsimile of questionnaire item at right).

This question was asked of males 14 years old and over in the 15-percent sample. As defined in this report, a "veteran" is a male 16 years old or over who has served but is not now serving in the Armed Forces of the United States. The respondent was classified as a veteran if he was ever on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, or Reserves, no matter how short a time he served. All other civilian males 16 years old and over are classified as nonveterans. The question on veteran status was asked only of males because a relatively small proportion of females has served in the Armed Forces of this country. Table I shows the distribution of males 16 years old and over residing in the United States at the time of the 1970 census by veteran status and age. The data in columns 1 and 2 were obtained from the 1970 census report PC(2)-2B, Mobility for States and the Nation, table 6.

Period of service.—The periods of military service identified in the 1970 census are the same as in the 1960 census except for the addition of the Vietnam conflict. Veterans who served in both the Korean conflict and World War II are presented as a separate group in text table II and detailed table 1. In the other tables showing period of service, the veterans who served in both the Korean conflict and World War II are included among those who served only in the Korean conflict. Likewise, all other veterans with more than one period of service reported are shown according to the most recent wartime period of service. The data were edited to eliminate reported periods of service which were inconsistent with reported ages. The "other service" category includes a few Spanish-American War veterans, as well as veterans who served only between the end of the Korean conflict (January 1955) and the beginning of the Vietnam conflict (August 1964); between the end of World War II and the beginning of the Korean conflict (1947-1950); between the end of World War I and the beginning of World War II (1918-1940); and between the end of the Spanish-American War and the beginning of World War I (1902-1917).

The number of veterans of the "Korean conflict" shown in table II for 1970 exceeds the number for 1960, even though the Korean conflict ended in 1955. The reason is that some of these veterans remained in military service until sometime in the 1960's before being discharged. The same reason explains the larger figure in 1970 than in 1960 for veterans of the "Korean conflict and World War II."

Inmigrants and outmigrants.—In table 19, data are presented for "inmigrants" and "outmigrants." These terms are used in the table with reference to migrants between States, geographic divisions, and regions. Inmigrants to an area are migrants who moved into that area from elsewhere in the United States between 1965 and 1970 and were still living there in 1970. Outmigrants from an area are migrants who were living in the area in 1965 and moved out to some other area in the United States where they were living in 1970. Inmigrants and outmigrants for any area exclude movers within that area.

Lack of plumbing, kitchen, or heating facilities.—In table 25, for owner-occupied and renter-occupied housing units, the data line "lacking complete plumbing facilities" refers to housing units which lack all three specified plumbing facilities (hot and cold piped water, as well as flush toilet and bathtub or shower inside the structure), or to the fact that the toilet or bathing facilities are also for the use of the occupants of other housing units. The data line "lacking complete kitchen facilities" refers to housing units which lack any one of the following: (a) a sink with piped water, (b) a range or cook stove, or (c) a refrigerator. The data line "lacking specified heating equipment" refers to housing units which lack all three of the following means of heating: (a) steam or hot water system; (b) central warm air furnace with ducts to individual rooms, or a central heat pump; and (c) built-in electric units.

In tabulating the data on lack of facilities (plumbing, kitchen, or heating), each housing unit was recorded separately for each type of facility. Therefore, the sum of the housing units lacking the three types of facilities does not equal the total number of occupied housing units shown on the first data line in the table, "all occupied housing units."
