This is a time-limited appointment with a Not to Exceed (NTE) date of one year and one day. This position may be extended up to 4 years. At any time, you may be extended, released or converted to a permanent position without further competition, based on management’s needs.

BENEFITS: If hired, you are entitled to health benefits. You are not entitled to within grade increases.

SELECTIVE FACTOR(S): Applicants must type 40 words per minute with 3 or fewer errors in a 5-minute sample.

DUTIES: The incumbent may work in any area of a regional office and perform any and/or all of the following duties: Use office automation equipment and a variety of software packages to produce various documents in draft or final form. Sort and distribute mail; assist field staff in locating addresses typing letters, and sending supplies; utilize databases to input administrative and/or survey data. Answer and direct phone calls; reproduce materials; assembles packs, and mails shipments to field employees. Maintain office files; assist staff members on individual projects and conducts follow-up actions to assure timely receipt of responses. Perform other clerical duties as assigned. The incumbent may occasionally be required to lift boxes of survey materials or laptops weighing up to 30 pounds.

WORK SCHEDULE: This position has a mixed-tour work schedule. A mixed-tour work schedule provides for periods of full-time, part-time, and/or intermittent work to accommodate fluctuating workloads. The candidate(s) selected for this position must sign an agreement outlining the conditions of employment prior to appointment. Once appointed, individuals will enter into a clerical pool and will be contacted when work is available.

KEY REQUIREMENTS:
- You must be a U.S. citizen.
- If your resume is incomplete, you may not be considered for this vacancy.
- Must be able to document or self-certify your ability to type 40 words per minute with fewer than 3 errors in a 5-minute sample.

<td>Decennial Census</td>
<td>The Census Bureau conducts a count of the entire population every 10 years, in years ending in &quot;0.&quot; Throughout the decade, tests are also conducted in various locations in preparation for the Decennial Census. Large recruitment efforts begin one or two years prior to the population count. Decennial positions tend to pay more than other Census positions, but are short-term in nature. Positions most often last several weeks.</td>

TYPES OF WORK

Data Collection: The majority of available positions at the Census Bureau involve data collection. Data collection involves working from home and interacting with the public. These jobs could involve the following tasks: knocking on doors to collect personal information and verifying household address listings. These jobs almost certainly require you to work nights, weekends, and whenever respondents are available. Limited data collection supervisory positions are also available for the Decennial Census and Special Census programs.

Outreach: These positions are only available for the Decennial Census program. These positions involve outreach to Census partners and potential applicants for Census jobs. Outreach work is conducted outside an office environment.

Office: For applicants who live close to one of the limited number of Census Bureau offices, there are a few office positions available. Office duties include a variety of clerical support tasks such as file maintenance, data entry, answering/making phone calls, word processing, shipping and receiving, processing payroll and personnel actions, and other administrative operations. Limited office supervisory positions are also available for the Decennial Census and Special Census programs.

CONFIDENTIALITY REQUIREMENT

If you are hired, the information you collect from the public will be confidential and must NOT be disclosed to anyone who has not been sworn in to protect Census Bureau information.

DURATION OF WORK

Short-term: Most positions are short-term and generally last several weeks.

Long-term: There are a limited number of long-term positions. Long-term positions vary in length, but could extend several weeks, months, or years, depending on the survey work available. Applicants who are selected for long-term positions will be notified of the duration during the interview.

TRAINING

If selected, you may be asked to attend a paid training session. You may be asked to travel for training and will be reimbursed. Certain positions may require you to complete automated self-studies online and/or classroom training that may require travel to another city on government per diem for several days, including overnight travel. Other positions may require on-the-job training, as well as refresher training sessions periodically.

PAY

Social Security deductions will be taken from your earnings. Federal, state, and local income taxes, where applicable, also will be deducted. You will be reimbursed for authorized out-of-pocket expenses, telephone, and other travel costs, such as parking fees, bus fares, etc., while on official business travel. If hired, you will receive specific information about pay from a Census representative.
Am I eligible for Census work?

1. You must be a United States citizen.
2. You must be 18 years old or older.
3. You must have a valid Social Security Number.
4. You must have a valid e-mail address. Any questions or issues with your application will be communicated via this email or by text message if provided. All job interviews and job offers will be conducted via the phone numbers you have provided.
5. You must answer assessment questions. For some positions, the assessment questions may be available in Spanish; however, an English Proficiency Test may also be required.
6. Male applicants born after December 31, 1959, must be registered with the Selective Service System.
7. You must pass a Census Bureau performed criminal background check and review of criminal records (including fingerprinting) as part of the hiring process.
8. You may not engage in any partisan political activity while on duty.
9. Your current employment (including law and regulatory enforcement jobs) will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis for compatibility with Census Bureau employment.
10. Since not all people will be home during the day, you must be available to work days, evenings, and/or weekends. Visits will usually be no later than 9:00 p.m. You will generally have flexibility to choose which hours to work during these productive time periods.

How do I complete the BC-170, U.S. Census Employment Application?

1. Print clearly using a black or blue pen. We cannot accept your form if it is not legible. Print neatly in uppercase. For example → ABC
