RECRUITMENT BULLETIN NUMBER: NYRO-19-085 (Internal))
New York Regional Office
New York, NY 10005

This is a temporary appointment with a Not to Exceed (NTE) date based on the needs of the survey, but the initial appointment may not exceed one year. At the end of the initial appointment, you may be extended, converted to a time-limited appointment, or released. The maximum length of the entire appointment may not exceed 2 years.

BENEFITS: If hired, you are eligible for within grade increases. You may be entitled to health under the Affordable Care Act.

SELECTIVE FACTOR: In limited areas, this position may have a language requirement. Indicate clearly on your application/resume the language(s) that you speak, read, and write fluently. Bilingual applicants are encouraged to apply.

WORK SCHEDULE: This position has a mixed-tour work schedule. A mixed-tour work schedule provides for periods of full-time, part-time, and/or intermittent work to accommodate fluctuating workloads. The candidate(s) selected for this position must sign an agreement outlining the conditions of employment prior to appointment.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Applications will be accepted from all sources within the following geographic area(s): Must reside in the: STATE of NEW YORK
County of KINGS (Brooklyn)

RELOCATION EXPENSES WILL NOT BE PAID.
DUTIES:

Field Supervisor:
The Field Supervisor (FS) serves as the first level supervisor for a group of approximately 6 to 15 Field Representatives, and is responsible for data collection in a geography that may include some hard to count areas. The FS is responsible for ensuring the group’s performance meets the standards and expectations set forth by the bureau and survey sponsors. The FS has knowledge of surveys conducted in the area of supervision. The FS understands parameters, procedures, question order and meaning, and typical response patterns of the surveys. Survey knowledge allows the FS to explain the reasons for differences in survey procedures and how those differences affect the interviewing experience. The FS is familiar with most problems encountered by subordinates while interviewing and is able to provide detailed guidance to subordinates on how to resolve issues. When problems occur, the FS applies general guidance, previous training, past experiences, or utilizes survey resource materials to derive appropriate solution. The FS seeks guidance from the supervisor on complex or unusual problems.

As a first level supervisor, the FS is responsible for evaluating and reviewing assignments of subordinates. The FS monitors staff performance that includes on the job observations, monitoring of various performance metrics. The FS may assist with training of employees. The FS reviews and approves payroll and leave submissions for their staff. The FS may assist with the recruiting of Field Representatives.

This is a time-limited position with a NTE date.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Grade 7: Applicants must have specialized experience described as:
One year of specialized experience equivalent to at least the next lower grade level. Must show experience in the following areas: (1) conducting surveys, (2) interviewing clients, respondents, and customers to gather and obtain data in person or by telephone, (3) operating a personal computer to collect data and generate reports, (4) completing work assignments in accordance with production or progress standards, and (5) supervising a team where responsibilities include assigning work, monitoring performance, completing performance reviews (including progressive disciplinary actions), and approving time, attendance, and leave.

There is no substitution of education for specialized experience at this grade level.

Applicants must meet all qualification requirements by the closing date of this recruitment bulletin.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT:
1. Must be willing to travel throughout all parts of the Field Supervisor area on short notice.
2. Must be willing to work days, evenings and weekends.
3. Must be willing to accept all assignments and work multiple surveys.
4. Must establish and maintain a safe work environment in their residence.
5. Must have use of an automobile and valid driver’s license
6. Must have a Wired Broadband Internet Connection at their work duty station to access the Census Network environment to complete their work assignments. If Wired Broadband Internet is not available in their area, the FS must be able to connect to a cellular network.
7. Must have a physical residence within the area of consideration when applying.

EVALUATION CRITERIA: Candidates are evaluated on the extent and quality of their experience. In addition, applicants must complete and submit the form attached to this recruitment bulletin, addressing how they meet the Evaluation Criteria. The application or resume must support the answer provided for each evaluation criteria question.

HOW TO APPLY: Interested applicants may apply by completing:
• A Census Employment Inquiry (BC-170) contained in this announcement.

TYPES OF WORK

Data Collection: The majority of available positions at the Census Bureau involve data collection. Data collection involves working from home and interacting with the public. These jobs could involve the following tasks: knocking on doors to collect personal information and verifying household address listings. These jobs almost certainly require you to work nights, weekends, and whenever respondents are available. Limited data collection supervisory positions are also available for the Decennial Census and Special Census programs.

Outreach: These positions are only available for the Decennial Census program. These positions involve outreach to Census partners and potential applicants for Census jobs. Outreach work is conducted outside an office environment.

Office: For applicants who live close to one of the limited number of Census Bureau offices, there are a few office positions available. Office duties include a variety of clerical support tasks such as file maintenance, data entry, answering/making phone calls, word processing, shipping and receiving, processing payroll and personnel actions, and other administrative operations. Limited office supervisory positions are also available for the Decennial Census and Special Census programs.

CONFIDENTIALITY REQUIREMENT

If you are hired, the information you collect from the public will be confidential and must NOT be disclosed to anyone who has not been sworn in to protect Census Bureau information.

DURATION OF WORK

Short-term: Most positions are short-term and generally last several weeks.

Long-term: There are a limited number of long-term positions. Long-term positions vary in length, but could extend several weeks, months, or years, depending on the survey work available. Applicants who are selected for long-term positions will be notified of the duration during the interview.

TRAINING

If selected, you may be asked to attend a paid training session. You may be asked to travel for training and will be reimbursed. Certain positions may require you to complete automated self-studies online and/or classroom training that may require travel to another city on government per diem for several days, including overnight travel. Other positions may require on-the-job training, as well as refresher training sessions periodically.

PAY

Social Security deductions will be taken from your earnings. Federal, state, and local income taxes, where applicable, also will be deducted. You will be reimbursed for authorized out-of-pocket expenses, telephone, and other travel costs, such as parking fees, bus fares, etc., while on official business travel. If hired, you will receive specific information about pay from a Census representative.
