

Statistics in Schools Activities for Initial Launch

(Approximately 60 additional activities will be added in Spring/Summer 2016)

Math
Elementary
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Changes in My State• How Does Our Class Compare?• The Place of My State
Middle
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Two-Way Tables: Walking and Bicycling to Work• Creating and Interpreting Histograms – Age Distribution of Householders in the United States• Patterns of Association – Quality of English Spoken by People Who Speak Spanish in Their Homes
High
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Analyzing Relationships: Marriage, Divorce, and Linear Regression• Commuting to Work: Box Plots, Central Tendency, Outliers• Differences in Earnings Across Sex and Educational Attainment: Comparing Box Plots
History
Elementary
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Native American Dwellings• “I Have a Dream” – Learning About Martin Luther King, Jr.• Jamestown Colony: Factors Affecting Population Change, 1630-1700
Middle
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Missouri Compromise – Free vs. Slave States• Population Profile of Our New Nation: A Comparison of the 1790 and 1800 Censuses• Westward Bound: Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri
High
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Class Discussion: The Progressives and the 1920s Census• Exploring the Great Migration – 1910-1970• Exploring 19th-Century Child Labor Laws in the United States
Sociology
High
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• An Analysis of the Millennial Generation• An Investigation into Immigration and Migration in America's Population• The Modern Family: Understanding the Change in Family Structures & Living Arrangements in the US

Geography
High
• How Do US Populations Stack Up?
• Analyzing Correlations of Education and Income
• Organizing Space the Census Way: Geographic Areas and Spatial Thinking

*Titles are subject to change.