

Relationship Question Testing Update

Rose Kreider, PhD

Fertility and Family Statistics Branch
Social, Economic and Housing Statistics Division
U.S. Census Bureau

Presented to the Census Scientific Advisory Committee
April 17th, 2015

Rose Kreider will provide an update about the testing for the relationship question. This presentation will provide some background about why we are changing the question, as well as information about recent and upcoming tests in the decennial program.