

Discussion - Edit Reduction Efforts in the Economic Directorate

- Thanks to Carma Hogue for a very concise and well presented overview of the efforts for edit reduction
- Its hard to hit a moving target
 - Not only a lack of standardized sources of information, but as a result difficult to build standardized procedures
 - Lack of 'least common denominator' in source data
 - Similar challenges as Big Data, trying to develop a systematic, standardized approach to a moving target

Discussion - Edit Reduction Efforts in the Economic Directorate (Continued)

- I was impressed with the experiments on the ACES data and the lessons learned from that process
- Question about IT storage
