You are accessing a United States Government computer network. Any information you enter into this system is confidential. It may be used by the Census Bureau for statistical purposes and to improve the website. Providing your information is voluntary. If you want to know more about the use of this system, and how your privacy is protected, visit our online privacy webpage at https://www.census.gov/about/policies/privacy/privacy-policy.html.

Disclosure of this information is permitted under the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a) to be shared among Census Bureau staff and its affiliates for work-related purposes. Disclosure of this information is also subject to all the published routine uses as identified in the Privacy Act System of Records Notice COMMERCE/DEPT-23, Information Collected Electronically in Connection with Department of Commerce Activities, Events, and Programs. Failure to provide this information may affect the Census Bureau's ability to partner with your government or organization.

Use of this system indicates your consent to collection, monitoring, recording, and use of the information that you provide for any lawful government purpose, so that our website remains safe and available for its intended use. Network traffic is monitored to identify unauthorized attempts to access, upload, change information, or otherwise cause damage to the web service. Do not share usernames and passwords with others, and report lost, stolen, or compromised credentials immediately. Use of the government computer network for unauthorized purposes is a violation of Federal law and can be punished with fines or imprisonment (Public Law 99-474).

This information system may contain Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI) that is subject to safeguarding or dissemination controls in accordance with law, regulation, or Government-wide policy.
