

PAST DUE NOTICE

Our records indicate that we have not received your response for the 2016 Annual Survey of Public Employment & Payroll.

Enclosed are separate survey letters for specific activities performed by this agency that have not yet responded. Please complete each survey online with its unique User ID and Password. Each survey should be completed for the employees engaged in the activities described in the address label for the pay periods that include March 12, 2016.

If you recently submitted your response, please accept our sincere thanks.

The Census Bureau requests your assistance under the authority of Title 13 United States Code (U.S.C.), Sections 161 and 182. These data are subject to provisions of Title 13 U.S.C., Section 9(b) exempting data that are customarily provided in public records from rules of confidentiality.

Your response is critical to us here at the Census Bureau and ensuring the accuracy of the data. The information will provide insight about government activity and is a vital contribution to the calculation of the U.S. Gross Domestic Product (GDP). Governments, researchers, and media outlets use these data to inform the public and develop policy for state and local governments.

For assistance completing the survey, visit us online at <https://respond.census.gov/aspep>, call our customer help line at 1-800-832-2839, Monday through Friday, 7 AM to 5 PM Eastern time, or email us at ewd.employment.survey@census.gov.

Thank you in advance for your time and cooperation, and for helping the U.S. Census Bureau measure America's people, places and our economy. Your response makes a difference.

Sincerely,

Lisa E. Donaldson
Chief, Economic Management Division
U.S. Census Bureau

Enclosures