Series P-25, No. 716
Issued December 1977

Estimates of the Population of the United States to November 1, 1977

The total population of the United States (including Armed Forces overseas) was about 217,478,000 on November 1, 1977, according to estimates released today by the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce. This figure represents an increase of 1,714,000, or 0.8 percent, over the estimate for the corresponding month a year ago; and an increase of 149,000 over the previous month. The monthly gain was the result of a natural increase of 123,000 (excess of births over deaths), and estimated net civilian immigration of 26,000. (See chart below. Data are adjusted for number of days in the month.) The November 1, 1977 total population represents an increase of 13,143,000 over the population on April 1, 1970, the date of the census upon which these estimates are based.

This report presents estimates for (1) the total population including Armed Forces overseas, (2) the resident population, and (3) the civilian population, for selected months back to January 1, 1970. The population coverage shown by the Census Clock in the lobby of the Department of Commerce includes, in addition to the total population including Armed Forces overseas, overseas civilian employees of the Federal Government, their dependents, and the dependents of the Armed Forces overseas. On April 1, 1970, this population was 204,839,000.

In addition to data from the decennial censuses, the estimates are based on statistics on births and deaths provided by the National Center for Health Statistics, U.S. Public Health Service; statistics on immigration provided by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice; data on civilian citizens abroad provided by the Department of Defense and the Civil Service Commission; data on movement between Puerto Rico and the United States mainland provided by the Puerto Rico Planning Board; and data on the Armed Forces provided by the Department of Defense. For a complete discussion of the estimating procedure used in deriving these estimates, see Current Population Reports, Series P-25, Nos. 545 and 706.
