4885	1.1.2.8				X	Third-country freight transportation arrangement services	Arranging for the international transportation of goods going from one foreign country to another, including all necessary customs clearances, regulatory requirements, and related documentation. The service-provider arranges for the import of goods from one country into an intermediate "third-country" (often the service-provider's own country) and the simultaneous re-export of those goods to another country on behalf of a client. The service-provider usually arranges for direct passage of the goods from the country of origin to the country of final destination without necessarily ever transiting the intermediate "third-country", and usually accomplishes this without the knowledge of the service providers' client's own clients in the origin and destination countries. The service provider receives the power of attorney for one of the parties to the shipment, and represents the party in all aspects of ensuring that the shipment is transported according to the time and place specifications of the client.
