INDEX

African. See Negro.
Age and nationality of immigrants—
age, 150-168; nationality, 168-177.
Agriculture, and territorial distribution of immigrants, 36, 37, 41, 42, 55;
imigrants engaged in, 275, 282;
"old" and "new" immigrants engaged in, 283-292.
Americanization. See Citizenship.
Belgians, increase in numbers of, 83.
Birth rate. See Fecundity.
Bohemians, engaged in agriculture, 283,
285, 286, 289.
Brigham, C., quoted, 304.
California, gold rush in, 18.
Canadians—citizenship of, 264; in New England States, 54-56; rank among immigrants, 66; territorial distribution of, 123, 125-129.
Child labor among immigrants, 270-283.
Cities. See Urban areas.
Citizenship of immigrants, 250-267;
of male and female immigrants, 256, 258.
Colonial stock, proportion of, in present population, 4, 5, 55, 94, 241.
Czechoslovaks. See Bohemians.
Danes. See Scandinavians.
Death rate. See Vitality.
Divorce. See Marital condition.
Domestic and personal service, immigrants engaged in, 271.
Dublin, L. O., quoted, 203, 204, 208.
East North Central States, immigrants in, 18, 10.
English—engaged in coal mining, 281,
283; immigrants speaking, 115, 120,
129; increase in numbers of, 83, 100.
Ethnic cohesion, 20, 142-145.
Extraction of minerals, as a factor in immigration, 13, 53; immigrants engaged in, 62, 271.
Fecundity of immigrant stock, 158, 179-196.
Foestor, R. F., quoted, 3, 141, 297.
Foreign stock, definition of, 2, 72, 87.
French Canadians. See Canadians.
Gainful occupations. See Occupations.
Gavril, J. F., quoted, 263, 264, 265.
Geographic distribution of native and foreign stocks, 11-21.
Germans—engaged in agriculture, 291,
293; immigrants speaking, 113, 114;
increase and decrease in numbers, 83,
89; influence on trend of "old" immigration, 86; in urban and rural areas,
138; rank among immigrants, 63, 64.
Grandchildren of immigrants, estimated number of, 91-94.
Greeks, increase in immigration of, 76.
Growth of foreign stock, 7, 8.
Hebrews—engaged in professions and skilled trades, 267, 268; females engaged in clerical occupations, 289, 294; in urban areas, 138, 140, 141;
numbers of, 111, 112, 115; vitality of,
203, 204, 208.
Hill, J. A., quoted, 152, 164.
Illegitimacy among immigrants, 244,
245.
Immigrants, nationality, 108-177.
Immigration, decennial, 45-47.
Infant mortality. See Vitality.
Intermarriage, 168, 232-244.
Irish—diversity of occupations among,
290, 291; excess of females among,
170; females engaged in domestic and personal service, 201; increase and decrease in numbers, 83; in urban areas, 138, 141; rank among immigrants, 63-66; territorial distribution of, 126; vitality of, 203, 204, 209-208.
Italians, fecundity of, 191, 192; in urban and rural areas, 138, 139, 141; rank among immigrants, 64; territorial distribution of, 121.
Jews. See Hebrews.
Language. See Mother tongue.
Laughlin, H. H., quoted, 302.
Luxemburgers, 90.
Males, excess of, among immigrants, 151,
158, 161, 162, 164, 170, 190, 220, 288.
INDEX

Manufacturing and mechanical industries, immigrants engaged in, 271; relation to territorial distribution of immigrants, 36, 37, 41.
Marital condition of foreign stock, 211-232.
Maximum fecundity, immigrants at age of, 157-159.
Mexicans—citizenship of, 260, 262, 265; in rural areas, 141, 142; in West and Southwest, 52, 53; marital condition of, 231, 232; rank among immigrants, 53, 66; territorial distribution of, 18, 123-128, 128, 129.
Middle Atlantic States, immigrants in, 13-15; "new" immigrants in, 52; "new" immigrants in rural portions of, 55.
Middle West. See East North Central States and West North Central States.
Mining. See Extraction of minerals.
Minority race and language groups, 111, 112.
Mormon Church, influence on immigrant settlement of Utah, 18.
Mother tongue and country of birth, 104-113; of foreign stock, 95-96.
Mountain States, immigrants in, 18; Mexicans in, 52, 63.
Native whites of foreign parentage, marital condition of, 216-218.
Naturalization. See Citizenship.
Negro immigrants, 50, 60, 103, 104, 177; population and occupation of immigrants, 275-277; territorial distribution of, in relation to distribution of immigrants, 34, 35, 40-42.
New England States, immigrants in, 15, 16; "new" immigrants in, 51, 52; "new" immigrants in rural portions of, 55, 56; territorial distribution of immigrants in, 33, 43.
"New" immigrants, age and sex of, 170-175; citizenship of, 280-287; fecundity of, 191-196; increase in numbers of, 76; in New England and Middle Atlantic States, 51, 52; in rural areas, 54-56, 68, 69; in urban areas, 131; intermarriage among, 242-244, 246-249; occupations of, 283-294; summary of characteristics of, 175-177; territorial distribution of, 120, 121; vitality of, 203-209.
"New" immigration, composition of, 61-65; definition of, 44.
Norwegians. See Scandinavians.
Occupations of immigrants, 208-294; territorial distribution of immigrants by occupations, 36, 37.
"Old" immigrants, age and sex of, 170, 171; citizenship of, 200-207; fecundity of, 191-196; importance of, in national stock, 91-94; intermarriage among, 242-244, 246-249; in urban and rural areas, 131, 133; occupations of, 283-294; summary of characteristics of, 175-177; territorial distribution of, 50, 51, 60-69, 119, 120; vitality of, 203-209.
"Old" immigration, composition of, 61-65; definition of, 44; differentiation from "new" immigration, 85-87; fluctuations within, 76-84.
Pacific States, immigrants in, 16, 18, 30, 43; Mexican immigrants in, 18, 52-56.
Ports of entry for immigrants, 29, 30, 41.
Pearl, R., quoted, 194, 210, 233, 238, 239.
Poles—engaged in unskilled labor, 201; fecundity of, 192; infant mortality among, 207; in urban areas, 138; rank among immigrants, 65.
Population, density of, and territorial distribution of immigrants, 33, 34; growth of, and territorial distribution of immigrants, 32, 33; proportion of foreign stock in, 7-9.
Portuguese, citizenship of, 292, 295.
Race, in classification of immigrants, 100-104.
Reemigration, 48, 49.
Residence of immigrants in the United States—race, nationality, and language of immigrants and, 57-65; size of cities and, 56, 57; territorial distribution of immigrants and, 38, 40-57.
Rochester, study of women homemakers in, 219.
Rossiter, W. S., quoted, 1, 4, 9, 28, 52, 54, 57, 92, 104, 147, 188, 195.
Rural areas, foreign stock in, 21-28; "new" immigrants in, 51, 55, 60, 133, 142.
Russians, territorial distribution of, 121.
INDEX

Scandinavians—engaged in agriculture, 283, 291; increase and decrease in numbers, 83; infant mortality among, 203, 204, 207, 209; in urban areas 136; territorial distribution of, 120; vitality of, 203, 204.

Semitic languages, 95.

Sex of immigrants, 150-168; in urban areas, 164-168; according to nationality, 168-175.

Southern States, number of immigrants in, 18, 19; territorial distribution of immigrants in, 19, 21, 35, 42, 43.

Spanish, immigrants speaking, 94, 98, 102, 103.

Territorial distribution of immigrants—citizenship and, 258-259; marital condition and, 220-222; occupation and, 275-279; summary of factors relating to, 146-149.

Ugro-Finn languages, 95, 111.

Urban areas, foreign stock in, 21-28; size of, and residence of immigrants in, 56, 97; nationalities conspicuous in, 131, 133, 138.

Urbanization and territorial distribution of immigrants, 30-33, 41; recency of immigration a factor in, 50, 139-141, 145, 149.

Vitality of foreign stocks, 196-209.

Welsh engaged in coal mining, 289.

Wessel, B. B., quoted, 2.

West Indies, immigration from, 59, 60.

West North Central States, immigrants in, 18, 19; "old" immigrants in, 50.

West South Central States, Mexicans in, 52, 53.

Widowhood. See Marital condition.

Willcox, W. F., Foreword, xv; quoted, 130, 147, 207.

World War, effect on classification of immigrants, 78; immigration and, 46-49; naturalization and service in, 250.

Year of immigration. See Residence in United States.

Yiddish. See Hebrews.

Young, A. S., quoted, 182, 186, 189.

Yugoslaw, citizenship of, 260.