PRELIMINARY
REPORTS

Population Counts for Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas

(This report is based on preliminary counts of the population as compiled in the 1970 census field offices. The series consists of one report for each of the 233 standard metropolitan statistical areas currently recognized by the U.S. Bureau of the Budget. The reports for the 230 SMSA's in the United States are numbered in alphabetical order rather than in order of publication, as are reports numbered 231 through 233 for the three SMSA's in Puerto Rico.)

As of April 1, 1970, the population of the standard metropolitan statistical area was 112,168, according to a preliminary count of the returns of the 1970 census. This figure represents a decrease of 8,209, or 6.8 percent, from the 120,377 inhabitants enumerated in the 1960 census.

The preliminary figures presented here will be superseded by the final counts to be shown in report Series PC(V1) and PC(1)-A which will be issued later this year. The final figures may differ from the preliminary counts for a number of reasons.

An outline of the 1970 census publication program can be obtained free of charge from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, or any U.S. Department of Commerce Field Office.

For Sale by the Bureau of the Census and U.S. Department of Commerce Field Offices, 10 cents.

PRELIMINARY

Population Counts for Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas

(This report is based on preliminary counts of the population as compiled in the 1970 census field offices. The series consists of one report for each of the 233 standard metropolitan statistical areas currently recognized by the U.S. Bureau of the Budget. The reports for the 230 SMSA's in the United States are numbered in alphabetical order rather than in order of publication, as are reports numbered 231 through 233 for the three SMSA's in Puerto Rico.)

As of April 1, 1970, the population of the standard metropolitan statistical area was 368,756, according to a preliminary count of the returns of the 1970 census. This figure represents an increase of 28,411, or 8.3 percent, from the 340,345 inhabitants enumerated in the 1960 census.

The preliminary figures presented here will be superseded by the final counts to be shown in report Series PC(V1) and PC(1)-A which will be issued later this year. The final figures may differ from the preliminary counts for a number of reasons.

An outline of the 1970 census publication program can be obtained free of charge from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, or any U.S. Department of Commerce Field Office.

PRELIMINARY

Population Counts for Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas

(This report is based on preliminary counts of the population as compiled in the 1970 census field offices. The series consists of one report for each of the 233 standard metropolitan statistical areas currently recognized by the U.S. Bureau of the Budget. The reports for the 230 SMSA's in the United States are numbered in alphabetical order rather than in order of publication, as are reports numbered 231 through 233 for the three SMSA's in Puerto Rico.)

As of April 1, 1970, the population of the standard metropolitan statistical area was 261,963, according to a preliminary count of the returns of the 1970 census. This figure represents a decrease of 14,633, or 5.3 percent, from the 276,596 inhabitants enumerated in the 1960 census.

The preliminary figures presented here will be superseded by the final counts to be shown in report Series PC(V1) and PC(1)-A which will be issued later this year. The final figures may differ from the preliminary counts for a number of reasons.

An outline of the 1970 census publication program can be obtained free of charge from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, or any U.S. Department of Commerce Field Office.

For Sale by the Bureau of the Census and U.S. Department of Commerce Field Offices, 10 cents.

PRELIMINARY

Population Counts for Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas

(This report is based on preliminary counts of the population as compiled in the 1970 census field offices. The series consists of one report for each of the 233 standard metropolitan statistical areas currently recognized by the U.S. Bureau of the Budget. The reports for the 230 SMSA's in the United States are numbered in alphabetical order rather than in order of publication, as are reports numbered 231 through 233 for the three SMSA's in Puerto Rico.)

As of April 1, 1970, the population of the standard metropolitan statistical area was 156,750, according to a preliminary count of the returns of the 1970 census. This figure represents an increase of 21,640, or 16.0 percent, from the 135,110 inhabitants enumerated in the 1960 census.

The preliminary figures presented here will be superseded by the final counts to be shown in report Series PC(V1) and PC(1)-A which will be issued later this year. The final figures may differ from the preliminary counts for a number of reasons.

An outline of the 1970 census publication program can be obtained free of charge from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, or any U.S. Department of Commerce Field Office.

For Sale by the Bureau of the Census and U.S. Department of Commerce Field Offices, 10 cents.
