Memorandum to Recipients of Part I Alphabetic Index of Schedule B, "Statistical Classification of Domestic and Foreign Commodities Exported from the United States."
January 1, 1944 Edition

The alphabetic index of Schedule B has been designed to facilitate locating the correct Schedule B commodity number which just appear on all Shipper's Export Declarations for goods exported from the United States or shipped to United States Territories and Possessions. The alphabetic index is in the form of a dictionary containing both specific names of commodities and general groupings of like commodities. Instructions for the use of the alphabetic index are presented on page XII of Schedule B, Part I.

Part II of Schedule B, "Numbered Classifications and Articles Included", has been designed to aid in interpretation and analysis of the form in which United States export statistics are compiled. Names of classifications for which export statistics are prepared are presented in code number order and under each classification are listed the names of selected individual commodities included. Part II may also be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., or from your district Collector of Customs for sixty-five cents a copy.

Since the Foreign Trade Regulations require that the Schedule B number be inserted on the Shipper's Export Declaration, it is necessary that all shippers be currently informed of any changes in Schedule B. For that reason all persons receiving copies of Schedule B should fill out and mail the form shown below so that they will be listed to receive free of charge all supplements to Schedule B.

Any questions, comments, or suggestions which you may wish to present in regard to Schedule B will be given prompt and careful consideration.
