

American Indian and Alaska Native 2020 Census Tribal Consultations Meeting

National Webinar

Overview of Agenda

Dee Alexander, Office of Intergovernmental and Congressional Affairs

U.S. Census Bureau

April 6 & 7, 2016

Welcome

- Census has conducted eight tribal consultation meetings with federally recognized tribes across the country
- Today's National Webinar presentations and recordings available at https://www.census.gov/aian/census_2020/2016-04_webinar.html
- Census is planning to continue tribal consultations late summer early Fall 2016

Meeting Goals and Objectives

- Open, two-way communication between tribal governments and the Census Bureau
- Input on effective ways to implement tribal-specific programmatic and operational activities
- Record and address outcomes, issues and recommendations
- Clarify Census Bureau programs and activities related to the 2020 Census

Agenda

- Goals and Objectives – Dee Alexander
- Opening Remarks – John Thompson
- Overview of 2020 Census Planning – Lisa Blumerman
- Demographic Statistics – Nicholas Jones
- Geography – Vince Osier
- Enumeration/Internet Self Response – Maryann Chapin
- 2020 Communications – Sydnee Chattin
- Partnership, Job Recruitment – Sydnee Chattin
- Wrap Up/Next Steps – Dee Alexander

Contact Information

Dee A. Alexander, Tribal Affairs Coordinator

Office: (301) 763-9335

Fax: (301) 763-8327

Email: dee.a.alexander@census.gov

