U.S. Census Bureau Official Correspondence

The U.S. Census Bureau requests your response to the 2020 Annual Survey of Public Employment & Payroll. Because of the recent Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, we realize you may not have immediate access to the records you need to provide exact responses to the questions in this survey. If this is the case, we accept your best estimate. All respondents are strongly encouraged to respond online.

Your response is especially important right now. It helps accurately measure the American economy so that policymakers and government officials like yourself can understand the impacts of this Coronavirus outbreak.

Online reporting is now open. Please use the following information to access your survey:

Due Date:

Please do not reply directly to this automated email. For assistance with completing your survey, please call us at 1-800-832-2839, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Eastern time. You may be asked to leave a voice mail message in lieu of speaking with a person, and we will return your call as soon as possible.

Thank you in advance for your time and participation, and for helping the U.S. Census Bureau measure America's people and economy.

Sincerely,

Kimberly P. Moore
Chief, Economy-Wide Statistics Division
U.S. Census Bureau

OMB Number

This collection has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The eight-digit OMB approval number is 0607-0452 and appears in the top right corner of each reporting screen. Without this approval, we could not conduct this survey.

Authority and Confidentiality

Title 13, United States Code, Sections 161 and 182, authorizes the U.S. Census Bureau to conduct this collection and to request your voluntary assistance. These data are subject to provisions of Title 13, United States Code, Section 9(b), exempting data that are customarily provided in public records from rules of confidentiality.

Burden Estimate Statement

We estimate this survey will take an average of 10 minutes to 15 hours to complete, including the time to review instructions, search existing data sources, gather and maintain the data needed, and complete and review the survey.
