This memorandum documents the release of the 2017 Census Test Report – Tribal Enrollment which was a nationwide self-response test that allowed the U.S. Census Bureau to assess the feasibility of collecting information on Tribal Enrollment, which is with particular emphasis on Tribal Enrollment and its distinction from American Indian and Alaska Native (AIAN) racial identification.

The 2020 Census Memorandum Series

The 2020 Census Memorandum Series documents significant decisions, actions, and accomplishments of the 2020 Census Program for the purpose of informing stakeholders, coordinating interdivisional efforts, and documenting important historical changes.

A memorandum generally will be added to this series for any decision or documentation that meets the following criteria:

1. A major program-level decision that will affect the overall design or have significant effect on 2020 Census operations or systems.
2. A major policy decision or change that will affect the overall design or significantly impact 2020 Census operations or systems.
3. A report that documents the research and testing for 2020 Census operations or systems.
