2020 Census

General Update

Pursuant to the Supreme Court's June 27 decision that determined the Department's explanation to include a citizenship question on the 2020 Census insufficient to support the Department's decision, the Census Bureau began the printing process for 2020 Census paper questionnaires without the citizenship question on July 2. A total of 43.5 million questionnaires were printed in July. In addition to questionnaires, 217.6 million letters, inserts, and envelopes have been printed as of July 29.

Since the Supreme Court's ruling, on July 11, the White House issued an Executive Order on Collecting Information about Citizenship Status in Connection with the Decennial Census. This includes "ordering the establishment of an interagency working group to improve access to administrative records, with a goal of making available to the Department administrative records showing citizenship data for 100 percent of the population."

In preparation for In-Field Address Canvassing which fully begins on August 18, the Census Bureau conducted a "soft launch" effort in July. The soft launch included early training and culminated with an In-Field Address Canvassing production "capstone day". The capstone day is the last day of training; notably, it is during this last day of training that a production case is worked.

The deployment of the Wave 2 Area Census Offices is being closely monitored to expedite buildout and ensure readiness. Actions such as modifying construction plans, using Reimbursable Work Agreements, and developing contingency plans for offices that are trending late, are being implemented.

2019 Census Test

Key Activities and Accomplishments Update

- The 2019 Census Test continued on track. Responses continued to be submitted online, by mail, and by phone. Assembly of replacement questionnaire mail packages occurred at the National Processing Center in Jeffersonville, IN. A replacement questionnaire was mailed to nonresponding households starting July 10. The fifth and final mailing was mailed out to nonresponding households on July 22 as scheduled. Data collection continues through August 15.
- The 2019 Census Test is asking a nationally representative sample of 480,000 households to answer the planned 2020 Census questions. The test is designed to measure the operational effect of including a previously planned citizenship question on self-response rates; it is a split panel test, with one panel receiving a citizenship question and the other not. The sample area includes mail out/mail back households in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

2020 Census

2020 Census Operational Readiness

Wave 1 Area Census Offices (ACO)

- All 40 of the Wave 1 area census office (ACO) spaces have been accepted, and 39 of them are ready to support the In-Field Address Canvassing operation. The Caguas, Puerto Rico, office will not open with the other Wave 1 ACOs because address canvassing will no longer take place in Puerto Rico due to the decision to place the entire island in the “Update Leave” Type of Enumeration Area for the 2020 Census. The Caguas office will open with the Wave 2 ACOs.

Wave 2 Area Census Offices

- All 208 Wave 2 offices have signed leases. The design phase is moving forward. As of July 29, about 62 percent (129) of the Wave 2 sites have buildout/space accepted and 87 of those offices are “ready for business”.
- The Census Bureau continues to work closely with senior leadership at the General Services Administration to expedite activities in order to meet the delivery deadline. Based on GSA’s commitment and Census Bureau experience with the Wave 1 process, we are confident the 208 Wave 2 ACO’s will open this Fall.

Recruiting and Assessment

- As of July 29, more than 671,000 applicants have created a profile in the Recruiting and Assessment application to become temporary workers for the 2020 Census. More than 539,000 of those total applicants have completed the assessments, which exceeds the recruiting goal for this point in time by more than 200,000.

Partnership Specialists Staffing

- A total of 1,826 recruits have been selected to work as partnership specialists, with 903 of them onboard and 923 in queue. (These figures reflect those onboard as of July 6 and those in queue as of July 24.) This is now under management focus; we are continuously working to get our partnership specialists through the clearance and appointment process. These specialists are to work out of the six regional census centers (RCCs) to collaborate with the 2020 Census partners—planning, developing, and managing the partnership agreements and coordinating with partners throughout the entire census timeframe. Another 64 candidates have been selected as partnership coordinators (58 are onboard, and six are in queue), who are responsible for the overall development, coordination, and management of the Partnership Program within a region.

Address Canvassing Listers and Census Field Supervisors

- Nearly 61,900 listers have been selected for the In-Field Address Canvassing operation, which surpasses our goal of selecting at least 61,300 applicants for this operation that fully begins on August 18. The onboarding status is “on track” as of July 29 as more than 46,100 have been fingerprinted, and more than 37,800 of those have cleared. Selections continue to cover any attrition that may occur. The goal is to deploy at least 40,300 of the selected listers in the field. Lister training began July 25.
- More than 5,800 census field supervisors have been selected for the In-Field Address Canvassing operation, which exceeds our goal of selecting at least 5,300. Almost 5,000 have been fingerprinted, and more than 4,500 of those have cleared. More than 3,100 census field supervisors have been officially hired. The goal is to deploy at least 3,100 by August 7.

2020 Census Complete Count Commissions and Committees

- Across the nation, local governments, tribal governments, and community groups continue to form 2020 Census Complete Count Committees. As of July 25, there were 3,503 local complete count committees formed (2,656 by local governments, 763 by community groups, and 84 by tribal governments).
- There are 40 states—plus the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico—that have active 2020 Census Complete Count Commissions. Another seven states (Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, West Virginia, and Wyoming) have committed or are in the process of forming a commission, and South Dakota is considering the formation of a commission. Florida has now joined Nebraska as states that have decided to not form 2020 Census Complete Count Commissions. Even though these 10 states don't have active statewide commissions at the moment, they have numerous government, community, and tribal complete count committees. As of July 25, these 10 states have established 759 committees (596 by governments, 157 by community groups, and six by tribes).
- All of the commissions and committees across the country comprise a broad spectrum of leaders from education, business, health care, and other community organizations. These are trusted voices in their communities who develop and implement a 2020 Census awareness and response campaign based upon their knowledge of the local community to encourage response.

Community Partnership and Engagement Program

- As of July 24, the 2020 Census Community Partnership and Engagement Program has more than 34,000 partners. We expect the numbers to start ramping up significantly this fall.

National Partnership Program

- The National Partnership Program has 309 national participating organizations, as of July 25. Participating organizations are engaged in partnership activities with the Census Bureau, such as highlighting the 2020 Census in their member or employee communications, inviting us to speak at national or regional conferences, assisting with recruitment, etc. Some recent additions to the partnership list include: National Association of Evangelicals, National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Sesame Workshop, Sisterhood of Salaam Shalom, Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Service, Universal Muslim Association of America, Christian Festival Association, and AMVETS.
