Comprehensive change. Definitions or boundaries data are provided when over time. Geographic Census data for industries compare Economic You can track and methods, classifications, reports use the same another. Most census or geographic area with compare one industry You can use Economic Consistent and geographic areas. consistent, comparable, and comprehensive across industries other measures of American business performance that are Census provides information on industry revenues and and butchering establishments gristmills, steam laundries, 1910—EC adds sawmills, oil wells 1917—Special EC reports issued to support war effort 1929—EC expanded to cover 1930—First Economic 1934: First GDP Data 1945—EC measures post 1951—Census Bureau's first 1954—Watkins Commission 1963—EC expanded to cover 1967—Companies report EC data on computer tape 1970–1949 1929—EC expanded to cover mining 1890–1909 1900—EC shows U.S. leads agrarian to manufacturing. 1909—EC expands to include 1890—EC shows shift in 1902: Census Bureau Created 1870—EC measures size of 1880—EC expanded to cover steamship industries 1850—First EC data on 1850–1869 1837: Morse Patents Telegraph 1869: Transcontinental Railroad Complete 1956: Interstate Highway System 1994: NAFTA 1848: California Gold Rush 1834: Large-scale iron production begins 1830–1849 1830—EC expanded to cover 1840—EC expanded to cover commercial trade, mining 1810–1829 1810—First Economic 1790: First U.S. Census

How it Works for You

At the end of 2012, millions of American businesses will receive Economic Census forms. Important Dates Oct–Dec 2012 - Forms Mailed Feb 12, 2013 - Forms Due Dec 2012 - First Results Published

The Economic Census affects every American who runs a business, saves for retirement, or takes out a mortgage on a home.

—Steve Landefeld, Director U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis

For more information about the Economic Census, please visit business.census.gov

The Economic Census has tracked the American economy for 200 years: see inside.
For more information about the Economic Census, please visit business.census.gov.