

A Message from the U.S. Census Bureau:

We need your help completing the 2017 Economic Census. The Economic Census is the foundation for most measures of the Nation's economy, including the U.S. Gross Domestic Product. This comprehensive data is collected from you only once every five years. The information provides reliable data for your community and industry for governments and businesses to evaluate markets, prepare business plans, make business decisions, develop economic models, and conduct research.

OMB Number

This collection has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The eight-digit OMB approval number is 0607-0998 and appears in the upper right corner of each reporting screen. Without this approval, we could not conduct this survey.

Authority and Confidentiality

Title 13, United States Code, Section 131, authorizes this collection. Section 224 requires your response. The U.S. Census Bureau is required by Section 9 of the same law to keep your information confidential and use your responses only to produce statistics. The Census Bureau is not permitted to publicly release your responses in a way that could identify your business, organization, or institution. Per the Federal Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, your data are protected from cybersecurity risks through screening of the systems that transmit your data.

Burden Estimate Statement

We estimate this survey will take on average between 42 minutes and 5 hours 36 minutes to complete depending on your principal industry classification and business activity, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.
