Use the graph above to answer the following questions:

1. Which group had higher registration rates? What about voting rates? Why do you think that is?

2. What are two things you learned from this graphic?

3. What is your prediction for voter participation in future presidential elections?