Item 4A REVENUE

See the enclosed General Instruction sheet before completing this section.

Enter "0" in items where applicable. Please do not combine data for two or more detail lines.

Exclude intracompany transfers.

If a book figure is not available, an estimate is acceptable.

Line 1.a – Report local service revenue, including extended area revenue. Include basic service connection fees, local private line revenue; customer premises revenue; revenue from public telephone services provided within the basic service area; and other local exchange revenue, such as directory assistance, touch-tone line services, call forwarding, and call waiting.
Report cellular and other mobile services revenue in line 2.

Line 1.b – Report revenue derived from telephone services that transmit beyond the basic service area, including telephone services that utilize the public long-distance switching network and the basic subscriber access line. Also, include any charges for operator assistance or special billings directly related to these calls. Report all revenue received from international calls originating in the United States, including the portion paid to foreign companies for accessing their networks.

Line 1.c – Report revenue derived from telephone service where charges are not distance sensitive (no distinction between local and long-distance areas.)

Line 1.d – Report revenue from providing links between specified points for the exclusive use of the client. Satellite companies providing services to broadcasting industries should report here.

Line 1.e – Report revenue from the transmission and switching of data using packet-switched technology on a fee or usage basis, i.e., the communication is sent and received in packets of fixed or variable length with addresses to route the packets along non-reserved circuits.

Line 2.a – Report revenue for the transmission and switching of voice, data and video where the call originates from or transmits into a portable handset. This includes calls using cellular, PCS, and ESMR technology.

Line 2.b – Report revenue for mobile radio service that subscribers primarily use to receive voice, text, or tone messages with small radio receivers. These devices may or may not be accessed by the public switched telephone network.

Line 2.c – Report revenue for non-switched radio transmission services such as dispatch services for taxis or field service personnel, and mobile data for police departments.

Line 3 – Report revenue for the origination, termination, or transmission of calls for another telecommunication service provider. Include charges such as interconnection and settlement charges for the termination of domestic or international calls, charges to long-distance carriers for calls originating at a payphone or within another carriers local network, charges for jointly used facilities such as pole attachments, and charges for the exclusive use of circuits. Private links should be reported in 1d. Internet traffic by one ISP for another ISP should be reported in line 4. Satellite companies providing point-to-point services to telecommunications firms should report here.

Line 4 – Report revenue for telecommunications related services, including internet backbone service, internet access, multi-channel programming distribution services, and telegraph, audio/video conferencing, telex, etc.

Line 5 – Report other services revenue from the sale or lease of communications equipment (include fair sales value of merchandise marketed under capital, finance, or "full payout" leases). Also include revenue from the rental of telecommunications plant or equipment furnished apart from services rendered. Services include operating and maintenance activities for others; special billing arrangements for customers; billing and collection services provided to other telecommunications firms; directory revenue from other than advertising services, installation fees, and services such as general accounting, financial, legal, etc., provided to firms under a license, general contract, or other agreement. Include sales of merchandise and equipment.

Note — If the amount reported on line 5 is greater than 20 percent of the total operating revenue reported in line 6, indicate the source of this revenue in the "Remarks" section on page 5.

An estimate is acceptable if a book figure is not available.
